

“Studying & Curing Cancer Series”

Wednesday, April 11, 1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Location: Kingsgate Marriott

1:00 - 2:00 (Mt Washington): UC Cancer Institute

Bill Barrett, MD, Director, UC Cancer Institute, College of Medicine

Current and Future Directions of the UC Cancer Institute

2:00 - 3:00 (Mt Washington): Social Science Cancer Research

Karlynn BrintzenhofeSzoc, PhD, College of Allied Health Sciences

Alcohol Use During Cancer Treatment: What Do We Know and Is It Important?

Caroline Morrison, PhD, College of Nursing

Self-Management in Cancer Care: The Patient’s Perspective & Opportunities for Innovation

2:00 - 3:00 (Mt. Echo): NMR and BMI Cancer Research

Lindsay Romick-Rosendale, PhD, CCHMC, College of Medicine

Head and Neck Cancer Cell Metabolism: All Hands on DEK

Kakajan Komurov, PhD, CCHMC, College of Medicine

Computational & Systems Modeling of Cancer Vulnerabilities

3:00 - 4:00 (Mt Echo): Basic to Community Cancer Research

In-Kwon Kim, PhD, College of Arts & Sciences

Metabolism, Signaling, DNA Damage, and Cancer Drug Discovery

Shaunak Sastry, PhD, College of Arts & Sciences with

Steve Sunderland, PhD, Director, Cancer Justice Network

From Patient Navigation to Cancer Justice: A Community-Owned Intervention in Cincinnati

4:00 – 5:00 (Concierge Foyer & Grand Ballroom) Networking Reception

#ResearchWeekUC

Full presentation schedule: <http://research.uc.edu/researchweek#speakers>

Register at: <http://research.uc.edu/researchweek>

Registration is not required, but will help in planning food/drinks.

