Instructions and Policies

Welcome to the University of Cincinnati's new Outside Activity Reporting (OAR) system!

NEW THIS YEAR: COI TRAINING

If you are an individual who engages in research, scholarly and/or creative work at UC, you must complete an update on your conflict of interest (COI) training. This is required every 4 years.

CLICK HERE to complete the training.

The system updates nightly. After your training is complete, you will have to wait a day to submit your OAR. You can see the date you last completed COI training courses at the bottom of this page. The current training will be valid 2024-2028.

To be compliant with UC policies and state/federal regulations, all full-time faculty and staff are required to submit an Outside Activity Report (OAR), even if you have no outside activities. Anyone who engages in research, regardless of full-time equivalency, must also submit an OAR. Your OAR must be completed annually, at a minimum, AND within 30 days of any change in activities throughout the year.
